SIXTY-FIVE KILLED.

Terrible Tornado in Missouri and Nebraska.

At Kirksville the Number of Known Dead Numbers Fifty, With Many Missing.

Kirksville, Mo., April 28.—As a result of the tornado that swept through the eastern portion of this city yesterday evening, demolishing half of the residences and other buildings, 200 families are homeless and nearly 50 dead bodies and 70 injured persons have been recovered from the ruins. More than a dozen of the injured will die.

Although rescuers have been searching the ruins ever since the storm spent its fury, many are still missing, and it is thought that a considerable number of the unfortunates were consumed in the flames that broke out soon after the storm had ceased. The work of rescue continues but it may be days before the total number of victims is known.

Originated in Nebraska.

St. Louis, April 28.—According to the best information the storm which caused so much loss of life and destruction of property in Northern Missouri originated in Nebraska. Its course was southwest through Western Iowa to the Missouri State line, thence through Harrison, Grundy, Sullivan, Linn, Macon, Shelby, Marion, north and west through Lewis, Knox, Adair, Sullivan and Putnam counties. When the storm retraced its course it was almost parallel with the other track traversed, and it was then that Kirksville and Newtown were struck. As far as known Kirksville, Newtown and Lancaster, Mo., are the only towns that felt the full force of the storm.

Desolate Scenes.

Chillicothe, Mo., April 28.—Scenes of utter distress and desolation were pictured to-day in the little tornado-swept burg of Newtown, forty miles north of the St. Paul Railway. A day of ceaseless search among the ruins and work for the injured and suffering followed a night of gloom and despair. Fifty families are homeless; there are about 15 dead, and over 50 injured, while half of the place is in ruins.
A complete list of casualties will not be known for several days.

Howling Blizzard.

Deadwood, S. D., April 28.—A howling blizzard has been raging all through the Black Hills for the past twelve hours. Six inches of snow has fallen here, and reports from farther north state that the fall is heavier than in this immediate vicinity. All farm work is suspended.

MARRIED 9 YEARS.

But Now Desire the Bonds of Matrimony Severed.

Gertrude Lee Hurt vs. John Hurt is the style of a divorce suit filed in the Circuit Court Friday. Plaintiff alleges that defendant, failed to provide for her support and that she was therefore compelled to abandon him. They were married in October 1880 and lived together nine years.

WRIGHT-HIGHT.

Crofton Couple Had the Knot Tied Sunday Afternoon.

The marriage of Mr. P. P.
Wright and Miss Ida J. Hight, well known young people of near Crofton, was solemnized at the bride's home at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the presence of a limited number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Justice of the Peace H. C. Helsley tied the nuptial knot.

After several weeks to relatives.

CONTINUE TO FIGHT.

Conference With Philippine Insurgents Ended.

But Will Fight Till They Die for the Principles They are Fighting in the Philippines.

Manila, April 29, 3 p. m.—The conference between Gen. Otis and the Philippine insurgent leaders has just come to an end and resulted in a wide disagreement, the leaders withdrawing and refusing to accept the terms offered by Otis.
They admit they are beaten, but say they will die fighting for their rights, as they understand them.

It is reported that the insurgents at Baler are holding the prisoners taken from the Yorktown's crew in captivity, hoping to get good terms for releasing them.

BRAKEMAN HURT.

Glove Caught on Car-Man Dragged Some Distance.

George Curran, an L. & N. freight brakeman, fell from the car while switching in the yards here Friday, sustaining some bad bruises and cuts which may lay him up for some time.
The gauntlet of his glove hung on a car while the train was in motion and he was dragged some distance before he could get loose from his perilous position. A large hole was cut in one of his knees and he was otherwise bruised, scratched and cut. His wounds were at once attended to and he was taken to his home in Nashville.

THREE SPEECHES.

Will be Delivered by Mr. Bryan
While in Louisville.

Louisville, April 28.—Tickets to the banquet to be given William Jennings Bryan while he is here attending Bimetallism convention will be issued Monday. Mr. Bryan, while he is in Louisville, will deliver three speeches on the evening of June 2. He will first speak at Phoenix Hill at 7 o'clock. He will later speak at the Auditorium, and then respond to a toast at the banquet to be given in his honor at Fountain Ferry Park.

FRAZEE-LEE.

Young Bainbridge Couple Take the Marriage Vows Sunday.

Mr. G. W. Frazee and Miss Callie Lee, young people of the Bainbridge country, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock p. m. Sunday.
Only a few friends and relatives of the couple witnessed the ceremony, which was pronounced by Rev. N.
C. Lamb of the Baptist church.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Guy Boyd Dies of Meningitis After Three Days Illness.

Guy Boyd, the 16-year-old son of Mr. I. Brooks Boyd, died of spinal meningitis Saturday night at his home near Barker's Mill. He was taken sick with the disease the Wednesday evening before. The remains were buried in the Killebrew grave yard, near Peacher Mills, Sunday.

A BOY'S PRANK

That Came Very Near To Causing Serious Damage.

A mischievous small boy, son of a citizen of the Kennedy neighborhood, placed a rail on the track of the L. & N. railroad, in a curve near Kennedy Saturday, that came near causing a wreck. It was discovered by the passenger train that ran just ahead of the passenger train.
The boy is known, but has not been arrested.

DISCHARGED.

Sommers Jury Fail to Reach A Verdict.

Four of the Twelve Jurors Stood Onto the Last for Acquittal.

Frankfort, Ky., April 29.—At 9:30 the jury in the Sommers indictment case was again sent to the jury room. The same anxious crowd was on hand, but it seemed a foregone conclusion that a verdict would not be reached.

After sitting again this morning and failing to find a verdict, the jury was discharged by the court.

The jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

It will be remembered that Sommers was accused by delegate Garnett Graves of paying him $400 for the proxy of Taylor county in the commissioner convention, held here April 6.

Bad Fire at Murray.

Murray, Ky., April 29.—The Mills livery stable, in the heart of the business portion of the town, burned last night, and a disastrous conflagration was prevented only by heroic work. Two fine horses and a number of vehicles were burned. Small insurance.

NO CATS LIKE THESE.

A Chicago Woman Who Fancies Felines.

Beauties That Are Imported From The Cat Club of Lady Beresford London.

Chicago, April 28.—Chicago has a new distinction—the finest cats in the country are owned here.

Mrs. Locke has made to her already large collection of felines five rare thoroughbred animals, imported directly from England. Mrs. Locke's cattery is at 2825 Indiana avenue. Every one is a rare, fancy breed cat. The lot not only adds much to the value of the collection, but places Chicago at the head of the list as having the finest and rarest cats in the country.

In this latest addition to the cats of Chicago is a genuine royal Siamese male cat, probably the only one in the country. He is not merely a descendant of the royal Siamese animal, but was born in Siam and imported directly from his native land. In addition to the Siamese cat there is a full blooded white Angora with round, blue eyes.

The fact that it has good hearing makes it a novelty and adds greatly to its value. Besides these there came a wonderful pair of pure black Angoras, which are rare in this country. The fifth animal is a fawn-colored Angora, also a scarce animal in America, principally because of its color.

All these cats were secured by Mrs. Locke through the Lady Marcus Beresford Cat Club of London. Mrs. Locke's daughter has been traveling in Europe the last year and one of the chief objects of her travels was to procure animals for her mother's cattery. All the famous cateries of England were visited and the finest animals that could be brought were taken up and brought to this country. With this latest consignment of cats to Chicago, the stock in the city is made almost complete so far as variety and color are concerned.

It was Mrs. Locke's intention in buying these animals not only to add to the value of her own collection but to make the Beresford Cat Club of Chicago, of which she is president, one of the foremost in the country. She now has nearly every variety of Angora known, and in addition has an assortment of colors among her cats that will compare with any in other cat cattery in America. In her collection are pure white, silver, orange, red, black, black and white, cream, fawn, chinchilla, blue and smoke-colored animals.

The value of the latest addition to Mrs. Locke's cattery cannot be estimated. To their owner these animals are almost priceless, for the reason that they had been secured after a long search and have been brought across the ocean. Every one of the animals has a long pedigree and each is a remarkably specimen of its class.

THEIR FIRST FEES.

Justice Field's Ounce of Gold.

His first law office was in a corner of Wells Fargo's Express Company's office in Marysville. He hung out a shingle, deftly painted by himself.

S. J. FIELD.
Attorney at law.

His first fee was an ounce of gold dust.

He was afterward elected Alcalde of the town, an office of Spanish origin. It was equivalent to that of Mayor, but carried with it judicial power as well. This was Mr. Field's first judicial training. He little dreamed, as he held court behind a dry goods box with candles for lights, that this office was but a stepping stone to that of Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

Speaker Reed Gets $25.

Justice Field's first fee reminds the writer of a story told by Speaker Reed, who, when a young man, also resided in California. It was at a dinner given at the Shoreham Hotel by Mr. Richard C. Kerens, of St. Louis. The writer was introduced to Mr. Reed and learning that I was associated with the California press, asked:

"Is old Judge Wallace alive yet?" and then related the following good story of how he was admitted to the bar. It is an old story, but in this connection will bear repetition.

"I was a school teacher when I concluded to study law. After months of hard study I appeared fearfully before Judge Wallace for my examination. Without any preliminaries whatever, or a single word by way of preface, he inquired suddenly: 'Young man, is the legal-tender act constitutional?' I promptly replied: 'Yes sir.'

"Then you're admitted to the bar," said he. A young man who was here just before you (the Sheriff of Tuolumne county) said that it was not. I admitted him also. Always glad to admit young men to the bar who can answer great constitutional questions off-hand."

When the laugh had subsided Mr. Reed continued: "How well I remember the first fee I received. Twenty-five dollars in coin, and how proud I was as I jingled it in my pocket. I received it for defending a Mexican charged with murder."

"I think as I look back on that day when I jingled that gold money in my pocket, my very own money, and the first that I ever earned at law, that it was the proudest and happiest moment of my life."

There was a silence around the table in order to give Mr. Reed a few minutes for reverie. Then the silence was broken abruptly by Mr. Kerens.

"But you haven't told us what became of the Mexican whose life you were defending."

"Oh, that," said Mr. Reed, with a drawl and amid great laughter, "is another story."—[Washington letter to the Indianapolis Sentinel.

As to Killing.

The evangelist Moody sustains the pot-hunting and jack-rabbitting policy of the good McKinley in the Philippines. "We can't leave these natives to form their own government," he says. "They would kill themselves off." Considering that our troops have already killed 6,000 of the natives—more the spadans have killed in fifty years and more than the natives would kill of each other in a century, judging by the past—isn't the devout Mr. Moody rather limping in his logic.

SHOULD JOIN WHITES.

Booker T. Washington Says Political Opposition of Blacks Causes Racial Strife in the South.

A letter received here from Prof. Booker T. Washington is pointed in its advocacy of colored men joining hands with the white men of the South instead of with strangers. The salient points of Mr. Washington's letter says:

"I have been asking myself lately some very serious questions, and I want to put one or two of them to you. Is there any reason why the negro in the South should continue to oppose the Southern white man in his politics? Is not this the source of nearly all our trouble? Unconsciously we seem to have got the idea into our blood that we are only acting in a manly way when we oppose Southern white men with our votes.

"I believe that Gov. Johnston, of Alabama, is just as good a friend to the black man as William Youngblood, of Alabama. William Youngblood has about 400 white followers in Alabama, while Joseph F. Johnston has 500,000 white followers in Alabama. Why should we longer follow Mr. Youngblood with his 400 white followers rather than Gov. Joseph F. Johnston with his 500,000 followers, when no principle is at stake?

"Why is it that the negro in Cuba has surpassed us in settling his race problem? It is not because the negro in Cuba has made the white man's interest in Cuba identical with his own? For example, suppose during the agitation on the freedom of Cuba the negro had continued to espouse the cause of Spain instead of the cause of the white man in Cuba, would not the white

Cubans have grown furious against the black man?

"In some way we must bring the race to the point where it will cease to feel that the only way for to succeed is to oppose everything suggested or put forth by the Southern white man. This I consider one of our real problems.

"I believe that there are thousands of white Democrats in North Carolina who are 50 per cent. better friends to the negro than Gov. Russell, who has no power to protect or, if he has the power, does not exercise it—rather than these other white men who can protect us if we cause to continually and forever oppose them."

What We Do.

We don't keep goods in stock. We don't hire any clerks. We don't pay any insurance. We pay but very little rent and but a small amount of taxes. But we will buy and deliver to you any purchasable article in existence cheaper than you can get it elsewhere for the very reasons above enumerated! Of course if we carried a large stock of articles the expenses we would have to make big profits too. But as we buy direct from the factory and have our goods sold before we order them, we are enabled to undersell those whose expenses are necessarily great.

In undertaking this business we are confident that a great cry of "Patronize home industry" will go up from those who must of necessity sell.

Don't be deceived. Ours is a home industry too. We send no more money away for goods than they do, but we divide the profits with you, so it is YOUR HOME INDUSTRY you patronize when you patronize us. Below we give a few of our prices:

SEWING MACHINES $75.00, $10.00 & $15.00. 200.00 and up.

ORGANS $300.00, $400.00 and up. PIANOS $175.00, $200.00, $250.00, etc.

HIGHLY COMMENDED.

The Alkahest Lyceum Bureau of Atlanta, Ga.

The object and purposes of this Bureau are to furnish a field for the gifted lecturers and entertainers of the South, as well as to invite to the sunny shores of this God favored land, talent from other sections of our country. The plan of this lecture system was originated by Prof. Andrew M. McConnell, of Atlanta, and is the very best ever devised for the smaller towns and cities. Prof. McConnell and Prof. O. C. Helvey are the managers. Both have held educational positions of highest trust. They are gentlemen of unquestioned purity and eminent ability. They have had large experience and are splendidly equipped for their work. Every pledge made to the public will be conscientiously and faithfully performed. J. H. Powell is now identified with this Bureau as lecturer, special agent and organizer. He will devote considerable time to the organization of local Lyceum Associations in Kentucky and the South. He hopes to receive the aid and co-operation of his friends and all others who are devoted to "Land we Love"; who delight in the success of worthy Southern institutions. A President, Secretary and Treasurer will be appointed and other details will be arranged in order to put the machinery in motion.

When at least one hundred members have been secured, and not until this is done, each member will pay to J. H. Powell, agent of the Alkahest Bureau, one dollar. The person paying this money then receives a membership card, which on its face, shows that he is a member of the Alkahest Lyceum Association of his town. On further payment of Three Dollars and Fifty Cents to the Treasurer of the Association he is entitled to attend, with lady or friend, ten consecutive engagements given by the Association. The courses begin September 1899. The said sum of $3.50 must be paid on or before the first day of that month. The person paying for and holding a membership card on the basis suggested will receive for one year, without any additional charge the Alkahest Magazine, published at Atlanta, Georgia, in the interest of the Platform, Education and Literature. The regular subscription price of this magazine is One Dollar.

The Lyceum is highly commended by the most intelligent citizens. All good people who feel an interest in this mode of imparting useful knowledge and pleasant entertainment are solicited to give the "Alkahest" the benefit of their friendly assistance. For further information address

Eld. B. F. Orr's Wife Dead.

Mrs. B. F. Orr, the estimable wife of Elder B. F. Orr, former presiding elder of the M. E. Church South, of the Princeton District, at present pastor of the Owensboro circuit, died last Thursday morning at the residence of her father, Mr. James Williams, near Philpot, whom she was visiting, and while there was taken with typhoid fever which culminated in her demise after a siege of some two weeks.—Crittenden Press.

A Louisville artist who is about to make a European tour as the piano soloist of a famous Berlin orchestra, will appear in the Louisville Music Festival, May 8th, 9th and 10th. She is Miss Zulie Harris who has but recently returned from ten years study in Germany. Her professional debut in Louisville was a remarkable personal and artistic triumph. Miss Harris is pronounced by competent critics one of the greatest pianists in America. Miss Harris is the daughter of a wealthy banker but has preferred art to society.

Love is seldom confessed until the evidence reaches the stage where making a confession is merely a matter of form.

"When my boy was seven years old he had a disease which affected his head and caused discharges from his ears. We used several kinds of medicine without much benefit until we began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine proved effective, and the boy is now entirely well." H. C. Davis, Big Hill, Ky.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, son of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and previous to that I had a severe attack of rheumatism in 1863." It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, ets, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the strongest medicine I ever had in the house—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by R. C. Hardwick Druggist.

For Railroad Commissioner,

Those who don't like the way McKinley is fighting the Filipinos Calumpit.

Mrs. George has offers from fifty theatrical managers to go on the stage.

Casualties in the Philippines from February 4 to April 28 were 198 killed and 1,111 wounded.

Mary Anderson Navarro, accompanied by her husband and baby, arrived in New York last week.

Chas. F. Price has been selected to succeed the late M. Lewis Clark as presiding judge at the Louisville races.

The Hawesville Clarion says Gobel is certain to carry Hancock, four-fifths of the Democrats of Lewisport and Hawesville being for him.

The Greenville Banner says Gobbel made some friends by his recent speech there, but that Hardin still holds his own in Muhlenberg county.

Joe Blackburn may have helped his own cause by voluntarily es-posing Charlie Sommers' cause in the bribery proceedings, but we doubt it very much.

Rear Admiral Kautz has been caught writing a letter that shows him up as something of a braggart.
He claims to be a bigger man than the King of Samoa.

The large pictures of Gen. Hardin, with small pictures of Bryan and Blackburn in the background, have appeared as a campaign feature in Hopkinsville.

The trial of Mrs. Annie George, at Canton, Ohio, for the murder of Mrs. McKinley's brother, Geo. D.
Saxton, ended in a verdict of not guilty. There were loud cheers as the clerk read the verdict.

A Canadian has discovered a process by which he can "age" whisky in 24 hours. He has refused $500,000 for his patent and has begun work on a big plant to be put up in Louisville.

The Northern editors who are so much excited over the Georgia lynchings, should take some steps towards stopping the crime of rape in the South. Remove the cause and the lynchings will cease.

Four United States treasury warrants for $5,000,000 each were drawn Saturday and transmitted to the secretary of state, to be used in the settlement of the $20,000,000 due Spain under the Paris treaty.

Vice consul H. B. Fullerton and Eugene La Manna are delivering good roads lectures in the towns of Long Island, and a similar series is in progress in Maryland. The lectures are illustrated and are doing much to stimulate interest in high-way improvement.

During the Railroad Convention here, the KENTUCKIAN compiled a list of the candidates before the Democratic Convention next month, which has made the entire round of the state press, and not one paper has given credit. But newspaper enterprise, like virtue, is its own reward.

It is believed that Grover Cleveland will be called to the new chair of general politics, to be created at Princeton University by reason of the recent anonymous endowment of $100,000. Few of us would care to have our sons taught politics by a man who twice wrecked his party and buried himself under an avalanche of something like 13,500, 000 votes, cast against the ticket he joined with his support.

A big mass meeting was held in Chicago Saturday night to protest against the war of conquest now being waged in Asia. Among the resolutions adopted were the following:

"We honor our soldiers and sailors in the Philippine Islands for their unquestionable bravery; and we condemn with the whole nation the Amorita lives that have been sacrificed.
Their duty was obedience to orders; our duty is diligent inquiry and fearless protest. We hold that our own Government created the conditions which have brought about the sacrifice.

"We earnestly condemn the policy of the present National Administration in the Philippines. It is in the spirit of '76 that our Government is striving to extinguish in those islands; we denounce the attempt and demand its abandonment. We deplore and resent the slaughter of the Filipinos as a needless horror, a dishonor to our nation.

"We protest against the extension of Spanish rule over the Spanish methods, and demand the immediate cessation of the war against liberty, begun by Spain, and continued by us. We believe that a foolish pride is the chief obstacle to a speedy settlement of all difficulties.

"Our Government should at once announce to the Filipinos its purpose to withdraw, and its guarantees of order, the independence for which they have so long fought, and should seek by diplomatic methods to secure this independence by the common consent of nations. It is to-day as true of the Filipinos as it was a year ago of the Cubans, that they are, and of right ought to be, free and independent."

Sam Jones opened up in Louisville Sunday and began by pleasantly referring to the fact that Henry Watterson having been deposed as a political leader was not wanted as a religious adviser. The remark was called to the recent editorial in the Courier-Journal, censuring the action of one of the churches in turning distillers out of the church. It is rather risky to blow in Henry's muzzle. Further developments are awaited with interest.

Secretary Hay has cabled to Minister Merry at Bluefields that the double assessments on American goods must stop. The Detroit is at Bluefields to enforce Minister Merry's demands. While we are excited over the Bluefields affair, what are we going to do about the robbing of the people by protected trusts at home?

The Louisville Dispatch was two years old April 16, and last Sunday's issue was a big forty-four page edition in celebration of the anniversary, being a few days late by reason of the recent removal into its new quarters. The paper was well filled with advertisements and was most creditable in every way.

Mrs. Henry T. Sloan was divorced by her husband Friday on a plea of adultery and the same night she was married to Perry Belmont, who recently had a newspaper controversy with Col. Bryan. Belmont is rich a heap and about as reckless in matrimonial matters as he is rich in worldly goods. All of the parties belong to New York's four hundred.

The Missouri Legislature has authorized a bond issue of $5,000, 000 by the city of St. Louis for the St. Louis World's Fair in 1903, and a vote on a constitutional amendment allowing the State to appropriate $1,000,000 for the same purpose.

The German Reichstag committee appointed to study the meat inspection bill has decided that dogs intended for human consumption must be submitted to an ante-mortem and post-mortem examination. Dog flesh is common food in Saxon.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed lining of the mucous membrane of the ear. When this is inflamed you have a rattling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever;
unless cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

A Deplorable Case.
Mr. Walter W. Gray, one of Trigg county's most esteemed and prominent young farmers, who lives near Cadiz, has been adjudged of unsound mind, and was received at the asylum here last week for treatment.

Adjudged a Lunatic.
Dave McClellan, col., of Crofton, was adjudged a lunatic by a jury here Saturday and sent out to the asylum. McClellan has been in the

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot
reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed lining of the mucous membrane of the ear. When this is inflamed
you have a rattling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this
restored to its normal condition, hearing
will be destroyed forever;
unless cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

"Only the First Step is Difficult."

The first step in Spring should be to cleanse Nature's house from Winter's accumulations. Hood's Sarsaparilla does this work easily. It is America's Greatest Spring Medicine. It purifies the blood, as millions of people say.

It makes the weak strong, as nervous men and women gladly testify. It cures all blood diseases, as thousands of cured voluntarily write. It is just the medicine for you, as you will gladly say after you have given it a fair trial.

Big Blood.—"After 20 years of age I am thoroughly well. It was three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla that made me so after spending over $90 in medical attendances. My trouble was a rare case of 'ankle'." Mrs. Louisa Mason, Court Pearl and Chestnut Sts., Jeffersonville, Ind.

months I gave my children Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured them of dysentery and recovered them healthy. I have been well

STOLE TWO ANIMALS.

Horse Thief Gets in His Work
Near the City.

Some time Sunday night a thief stole a fine male from Mr. C. G.
Layne's farm, a few miles east of the city. A horse belonging to Mr.
W. H. West, of this place, which was being pastured at Mr. Layne's, was also taken, and a bridle and saddle, the property of Mr. R. B.
Hall, of the same neighborhood, was carried off. Mr. Layne received a telephone message from Russellville yesterday, stating that a colored man had been arrested in that place, having in his possession two animals answering the description of the stolen property and he will go to that place to-day to look after the matter.

Clarksville Tobacco Market.

Clarksville, Tenn., April 28, 1899.—Our market during the month of April in comparison with sales for some months on past years, shows more activity on the buying for port, although many of the best orders are still held back, and as is usual will not enter the market until May. The market this week shows higher figures for lugs. Our sales for month are 450 hds., two hundred of which we sold this week.
In the absence of fuller export demands the higher grades of spinners and wrappers are not yet offered.

We have sold for month of April as follows:
80 hds. good leaf, from $8.00 to $12.50.
150 hds. low to good medium leaf from $5.25 to $7.75.
125 hds. good lugs, from $3.50 to $4.50.
95 common lugs from $2.00 to $3.25.

Yours very truly,
KENDRICK & RUNYON.

The War in a Nutshell.

Prof. D. E. Frantz's Art Tours are an ever changing dream of interest and beauty. This Wargraph holds the entire Spanish American war, as it were, in a nutshell. Battles are fought, and won in a moment, of time and we meet the heroes of them face to face as in actual life. From the Blowing up the Maine to the great naval parade in New York, there is not a missing link in the chain of events. Every man, woman and child should see them while they can, for the Wargraph, unlike the little brook, may not go on forever.—Pittsburgh Dispatch, Dec. 2, 1898.

HERO OF CALUMPT.

Kansas Colonel Makes a Great Record as a Fighter.

Don't Get Excited Girls, He's Already Married—Fred Funston His Name.

Manila, April 30.—Col. Frederick Funston, of the twentieth Kansas volunteers, was the hero of the fighting before Calumpt. With two companies of volunteers he crossed the Rio Grande river on a raft and charged the main body of the insurgents in their trenches, first driving them out by an enfilading fire. The remainder of the Kansas and the Montana volunteers meanwhile crossed the bridge and joined the attack and the enemy was sent flying to the northward.

Col. Funston did not leave McArthur in peace until he obtained permission to cross the Rio Grande. The night before he made two attempts to cross with a picked detail, but the barking of dogs revealed his plan to the enemy.

Two Kansas privates—White and Trembley—performed an extraordinary feat of bravery in carrying out Funston's plan. They swam the Rio Grande with a rope in the face of a murderous fire from the insurgents' trenches, the shots kicking up the water all around their heads. Once over they fastened the rope to a tree, and using the raft as a stay against the current, the raft bearing Funston and his men crossed over.

On Tuesday Col. Funston swam the Bag Bag river under fire of rebel sharpshooters and reconnoitred the enemy's position before Calumpt.

Col. Funston is just five feet high, has red hair and does not know fear. He has a record as a fighter.

Before our war with Spain he went to Cuba, enlisted in the army of independence and served 18 months under Gomez and Garcia. They gave him the command of the Cuban artillery. In leading a charge he was wounded in both lungs. His horse fell on him and crushed him, but he hoisted himself by pretending that he had had enough of the insurgents.

He was in a hospital in this country when war was declared and the news made him recover so quickly that he was soon appointed colonel of the Kansas regiment. While in San Francisco waiting for transportation he fell in love and was married. Mrs. Funston is now in Manila.

FUNSTON KNOWS NO FEAR

A Former Schoolmate Talks of the Little Colonel.

Chicago, April 30.—In reply to a telegram from a local paper inquiring "What's the matter with Funston?" William Allen White, editor of the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette, and writer of the famous editorial, "What's the matter with Kansas?" telegraphed the following:

"I have known Fred Funston for about fifteen years; went to Kansas

Scott's Emulsion

It is like cream; but will feed and nourish when cream will not. Babies and children will thrive and grow fat on it when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

state university with him, where he had a slow mule race at the foot of every class. Afterward we roomed together while working for Kansas City papers.

I am not afraid of anything that can talk. Once in school the town's "bad coon" tried to run over Funston. The darkey weighed 200 pounds and was a "scrapper" with a razor record. Funston is 5 feet and 3 inches and weighs about 95. He "bluffed" the "colored brother" to a standstill and went for a warrant and marched the boss bully through the main streets of Lawrence at the point of a gun.

Once when he was a Santa Fe train conductor he threw an obstreperous cowboy down in the middle of a car aisle, took the cowboy's gun away, pounded him with it, threw him off the train and chased him half a mile down the track, throwing ballast at him.

Funston was in Alaska four years ago and he took a longer trip in the middle of the dark arctic winter with only Indian guides than Peary took in Greenland in the light of summer.

The only thing Funston would rather do than fight is to read Kipling. There is absolutely nothing to matter with Funston, and what is more, there are several hundred other young fellows in Kansas made of the same stuff."

THE WORST YET.

Communion Service Stolen From Euergesis Church.

Kennedy, Ky., May 1.—The Euergesis Christian church, near this place, was robbed of its communion service by a thief who entered the closet in the church. The discovery was made yesterday at the regular services. The robbery occurred since the third Sunday in April, when the church was last occupied. The thief made a clean sweep, taking silver service, communion cloth, wine, plates, and everything else used in communion. The loss amounts to about $50. There is no clew to the guilty party, as the crime may have occurred a week or ten days ago.

Pon, Ky., Apr. 30.—The farmers have been busy planting corn this week, some are done planting, others haven't commenced.

Mr. E. M. Barnes and wife, were visiting the family of Mr. J. T. Walker Sunday.

The postoaks and whiteoaks are full of blossoms. We bid fair to have a large crop of acorns this fall.

The peach crop will be short this year, as there are but few trees in blossom.

Mr. Gus Robinson was visiting in our vicinity this week. He is considerably improved in health.

Mrs. Mattie Kelly is better this week.

Misses May Robinson and Carrie Gates, of Bluff Springs, was visiting the family of Mr. W. E. Kelly, last Thursday.

Mr. L. B. King, our tobacco merchant, was out buying tobacco this week. He says he bought ten thousand pounds of fine leaf.

HONEY BEE.

FARMERS FORGING AHEAD.

Corn Crop Planted and Much Tobacco Land Prepared.

During the past ten days the farmers have probably done more work than was ever done on the farms in the same length of time. When they started out with spring work they were fully a month later than usual and heroic efforts were made to gain time that was lost by the wet weather. As it is nearly all of the corn crop has been planted, much of the tobacco land has been prepared and the next thing in order will be setting out the tobacco plants. Indications are that plants will be plentiful and a good season will insure the usual crop of the weed. Reports say that the wheat crop is improving very rapidly and the prospects for a fair crop are more flattering than they were two weeks ago.

SEASON OF 1899.

To Our Friends: Another season of seed time is fast approaching, and the wise and prudent farmer will again use the old and favorably known JONES BRANDS of BONE AND ANIMAL MATTER FERTILIZERS, that have for many years done their full duty with applied results. Spring and Fall crops. The use of these fertilizers is almost universal, and the experience of many years has proven conclusively that ANIMAL MATTER FERTILIZERS are the most complete plant food known, and the fact that the ACID PHOSPHATE ROCK in a bag and branding it "DIS-SOLVED BONE" does not make it animal matter. Honest strictly pure Animal Matter Fertilizers cost more than rock guano, because they are worth more, and we ask that you remember this fact. Our goods go out under our guarantee analysis, and this guarantee is good. We offer our goods on their merits, and refer with great satisfaction to their most excellent reputation in all parts of Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky, where they are especially used. We respectfully urge you to give the celebrated Jones Fertilizing Co. goods a trial of Spring and Fall crops, and we know satisfactory results and future buyers will certainly follow.

When Dewey Comes

By George Ade

"ONCE in a while I see something funny in a newspaper, and this is the greatest joke of the century," said Mr. Sweet. He was looking at the morning paper, which was folded and propped against the syrup pitcher in front of him. As he spoke he seemed almost pleased. The expression of satinine ferocity softened into one of malignant glee.

Miss Baxter, the art student, Mr. Sweet's only female employee, and Miss Dixon, the stenographer, looked up in surprise. No wonder. Mr. Sweet did not often praise any work of man. He had an especial contempt for puns and witcisms. He winced at the repartee which sent the young women into hysterical giggling. Therefore, for Mr. Sweet to say that he had found something which was altogether outside of the ordinary and for him to give the opinion that a certain joke was the "greatest of the century" was simply astounding.

"For goodness' sake, read it to us, Mr. Sweet!" said Miss Dixon.

"I don't care for jokes. If you think this is funny it must be perfectly killing."

"I don't care for a joke unless it is a masterpiece," said Mr. Sweet.

"I like a joke that has entertainment value," said Mr. Sweet, "but I like a joke that will keep you thinking after a week after you read it, a joke that will present new and humorous aspects every time you take up the study of it."

"I never heard that kind of a joke," said Miss Dixon. "Just laugh, and then it is all over."

"Sweet, you've got me interested," said Mr. Crosby. "What is this thing that you say is so funny?"

"Well, it says here that Admiral Dewey is broken in health, and so it is proposed that he return to the United States for rest and repose."

"You say, probably, after a short pause, 'I read that. What about it?'"

"That's all there is about it," replied Sweet, glaring at his paper.

Mr. Crosby, Miss Baxter and Miss Dixon looked at one another in silent wonderment.

"Well, that—that isn't the joke, is it?" asked Miss Baxter.

Mr. Sweet trembled with wrath as he rearranged the paper in front of him.

"You say, you say, and you find something remarkable in the proposition that Admiral Dewey return to the United States for rest and quiet."

"Well, that—that isn't the joke, is it?" asked Miss Baxter.

Mr. Sweet trembled with wrath as he rearranged the paper in front of him.

A negro man named Hunt, and employed by the N. C. & St. L. railroad, was instantly killed at Murray Saturday morning. He was operating a steam shovel in a gravel pit at that place, when the banks caved in, crushing his life out.

Men at work with Hunt did everything possible to rescue the unfortunate man, but when dug out, it was apparent that death was almost instantaneous.

Three men were killed by an explosion several years ago in the same gravel pit.
